Tim travelling by train

Tim felt angry as he got off the train. Tim is a traveller. He finally got off the train after a long journey, when he realised that he forgot his baggage in a train! He went to a train station and tried to be on time, but he couldn't. He was a rich man, so he went to the nearest shop to buy some new things. He spent a lot of money buying new ~~clothes~~ clothes. But don't worry, now he is okay. He is sunbathing at the beach of the red sea. And next month ^{he} had a journey to another country.

Tim felt angry as he got off the train.

Tim loved playing tennis very much. He had been playing it since he was a young boy. He'd always dreamt of becoming a professional player. He spent many hours on the court every day playing and practicing hard.

One day his coach suggested him to take part in a competition. Tim was very happy to hear it, 'cause he always wanted to prove himself and to earn some respect.

He was really waiting for it. They were going to that place by train, so Tim even packed all his things beforehand.

But in the end, he lost this competition.

So, that was the reason of his anger when he returned back.

I have heard the proverb "When there is a will there is a way" many times before in my life but only recently have I started to understand and relate to what it means. With the arduous strive and effort there isn't a single accomplishment or dream that cannot be fulfilled. The proof of that are the millionaires, athletes and entrepreneurs ^{so} that achieved their dreams. These are real people. Most of them weren't rich and no one achieved peak athleticism ^s ~~at~~ instantly. Throughout the most part they were the same like us with no real competitive advantage in the path to success. The most significant difference between us and them is that they didn't lack the courage to act. Immediate actions are one of the key fundamentals to success. But that doesn't mean that we have to wait for the right "moment" to act. The moment is now! If you truly want to get something out of life you are supposed to be motivated enough to put in the hard work. The universe is very giving - there hasn't been a single hardworking person that didn't get ~~that~~ ^{what} ~~he~~ ^{they} worked for. With the necessary will there will always be a way. At first the work is going to intimidate anyone but that is also part of the journey and we must overcome that in order to succeed.

Willpower is a strong driving force that aids you in achieving your goals. Nothing is impossible for a person with strong determination. This can be greatly seen in a proverb: "Where there is a Will there is a way."

This proverb means that without willpower you cannot succeed in achieving your goals. This statement encourages people not to give up and continue no matter how difficult or intimidating the goals are.

I believe that it teaches that hard work and passion is a way to success. For reinforcement of my opinion I can say that if one just keeps dreaming without ^{making} ~~putting~~ any effort and doing nothing he will be faced with failure. Will is surprisingly an incredibly powerful force. Pure willpower makes a human reach his potential limits. The same goes for achieving goals.

For example, I have a passion for art. To continue my studying of art I need to pass a very hard exam. Without passion and will I ~~won~~ will not be able to do that. Will to achieve my goal keeps me going. As for my second reason, I ^{know} ~~know~~ a lot of people in my family' bloodline who did not achieve their dreams because of lack of passion and determination. This shows that you do need to put effort in your doing for it to succeed.

Courage and determination are essential for accomplishing our dreams. We need to discover our inner strength to overcome difficulties. Nothing is impossible for one with strong will.

It is not a secret that proverbs keep in themselves folk wisdom and sometimes even answer the most difficult questions. Speaking of which, the only proverb I have ever fully agreed with is "Where there is a will there is a way".

My opinion has been influenced by my personal experience. Two years ago I decided to apply to the private school in the United States for studying abroad. The thing is that at that time I did not know English at all, so having only three months to learn the language and prepare for the oncoming exam was a real ordeal. To tell the truth, I was intimidated by how little time I had to accomplish that goal. Nevertheless, I passed the exam successfully. Afterwards I realised what am I capable of when I am willing to put all my efforts to implement a dream into reality.

On top of that, ^{there are} many examples ^{in literature} proving this proverb. In Jack London's novel "Martin Eden" the ~~hero~~ ^{character} did not anticipate how difficult the path to the goal would turn out to be. He grew up uneducated but eagerly wanted to become a famous writer. No one believed in him but nothing could stop Martin. He stubbornly persisted in his goal, honing his skills and in the end achieved everything he had desired.

All in all, I strongly believe that if a person is courageous enough to face some obstacles in order to achieve a goal, it is possible to find a way that will lead to success.
